

110 ARRESTED FOR DISOBEYING MASKING EDICT

Educational Campaign by Police Discourages Bib Fashion of Attachment

One hundred and ten persons who refused to wear masks or to keep their masks properly adjusted were arrested yesterday. They were first reminded by policemen to put on their masks, and the arrests, say the police, were the result of open defiance of the health regulations.

The arrests were made in all parts of the city, but the majority were from the vicinity of Pacific and Kearny streets. When the maskless ones found that the police meant business all manner of excuses were advanced for not wearing masks, the favorite excuse being that the mask had just been removed to permit of smoking.

The fashion of wearing the mask under the chin as a sort of bib was the object of an educational campaign on the part of the police, and wearers who refused to give up this style of wearing the mask were taken into custody.

All the accused will be formally charged in the Police Court today.
