

Epidemic Cuts Car Receipts $1,100 Daily

Car receipts on the Municipal Railways have fallen off on an average of $1,119.44 for the past five days owing to the influenza. "People are not travelling," said Superintendent Fred Bocken, "any more than is actually necessary."

The receipts for five days ending Friday night were $72,639.04, as against $78,235.25 for the same five days of the preceding week. This represents a loss of $5,597.20 for the five days or an average of $1,119.44.

The Municipal car men have also been hard hit with influenza and 132 men have been reported sick.
