

PERSONAL MENTION

Short Accounts of Our Citizens' Activities.

Miss Merle Miller is on the sick list.

Mr. Ed. Dawson, Sr., spent Monday in Pueblo.

Jim Scheer of La Veta was in town Monday on business.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Merritt, November 26, a girl.

Miss Bessie Bodycomb has the flu at her home on Seventh street.

Mr. McGowan of Pueblo spent the week end in town on business.

The Roy Ely family are all down with the flu. Mr. Ely is quite sick.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Orahood expect to occupy the Devinsky house soon.

Mr. Wiley Hulsey, who is stationed in New York, is home on a short vacation.

Harry Holder is confined to his home with the flu. He is now much improved.

Rev. Miller and wife are again able to be up after having been sick with the flu.

Mrs. C. K. Orahood and daughter May returned last week from a visit in La Junta.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Merritt returned Tuesday from Denver where they had been on business.

The Thornton family who have been quite sick are slowly improving. Mr. Thornton as yet is not able to leave his bed.

Miss Mabel Peet spent the week end in Carbonida taking care of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Turner, who had an attack of the flu.

Miss Mabel Peet and Miss Hannah Blockter have received notice to report to a Denver hospital for immediate service as nurses.

Mrs. D. A. Stout has fully recovered from an attack of the flu and with Mr. Stout and the children returned to their home in Pueblo.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Peet were visiting at the home of Mr. Peet's parents for a couple of days. Mr. Peet is home for a short furlough.

Miss Jessie Devinsky is here from Pueblo for a short visit with her parents, who will move to Pueblo as soon as the roads are in condition to transport their household goods.

• Rub a sore throat with BAL-LARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. One or two applications will cure it completely. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by City Pharmacy.

Harry Sullivan and wife are again living at Mrs. Moncrief's home. Mr. Sullivan was recently hurt in a mine explosion at New Castle, and is now employed at Cameron mine.

Miss Ella Shaft died at her home in Walsenburg Sunday evening at 8 p. m., from an attack of pneumonia. She was 24 years, 3 month and 19 days of age. Funeral was held from the residence on Tuesday. Ella Shaft had been a cripple from rheumatism for many years. She was one of those cheerful invalids, always with a pleasant smile. Her many friends will miss her greatly and extend sympathy to the bereaved family.

WALSEN CAMP NEWS.

Tom Bodycomb is on the sick list.

S. S. Temple is confined to his home with the flu.

Robert Templeman is quarantined at his home with the flu.

Mrs. Smith of Denver is visiting her cousin, Miss Treadwell.

We are quarantined here and the guards see that no one trespasses.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Getchell entertained a few of their friends at dinner Wednesday.

Mrs. F. A. Attek, who lives in Denver, spent last week visiting her daughter, Mrs. John O'Connell.

L. S. Clark is helping at Lester in the company store, while their clerks are having the fashionable disease, "the flu."

Mrs. Young and daughter of Lester visited in our camp Thursday. Mrs. Young's husband is manager of the Colorado Supply Co. store at Lester.